The page contains an editorial on gun safety and firearm storage. The editorial highlights the need for safer storage of firearms and emphasizes the role of the National Rifle Association in opposition to such measures. It mentions various statistics and incidents related to gun violence and argues for the importance of safe firearm storage to prevent accidental shootings, particularly among children. The editorial also discusses the need for legislation to address this issue. The page includes a section titled "College disparity" that discusses the Texas Gun Sense organization and its efforts to educate the public about the importance of safe firearms storage. It mentions the "TALK. TEXT. CRASH." campaign as an example of such efforts. The page also includes a section titled "Get to work" that discusses the importance of addressing gun violence and the need for public support in implementing safer gun storage laws.